

Name of Group: Monroe County Council on Inclusion

Definition of Inclusion

Inclusion is built on a foundation of respect and understanding for the broad spectrum of human differences of the residents of Monroe County, Pennsylvania. Those who practice inclusion recognize that cultural, physical and other differences are a source of strength. They work to promote civic engagement, and a dialogue that reflects the diversity of needs/experience in Monroe County of newcomers and longtime residents alike.

Values

- ✓ Respect
- ✓ Understanding
- ✓ Collaboration
- ✓ Communication

Vision

Making Monroe County a place where newcomers/longtime residents and youth and adults alike feel appreciated, included, and capable of working together for improvement and positive change.

Mission

The Mission of the Monroe County Council on Inclusion is to build a foundation of respect and understanding that reflects diversity by promoting civic engagement and collaboration.